"USING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IN CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION"
INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS CONFERENCE

Topic: "Using artificial intelligence in criminal investigation"
Artificial intelligence: The purpose of the conference is to discuss how to prevent crimes using artificial intelligence due to the increasing number of crimes committed using technological advances in the globalized world today, and to find solutions, learn mutual experience, and acquire vocabulary among students and cadets studying security and law enforcement at domestic and international universities.
Organizer: Foreign Language Institute, University of Internal Affairs
Date: November 21st, 2024, 13:00-17:00 UTC
Location: University of Internal Affairs
Conference format: Online [virtual on zoom]
Scope: Students, and cadets of Mongolian and international universities

Papers focusing on the following topics will be expected and welcomed:

- Risks and advantages of using artificial intelligence in criminal investigation
- The possibility of using artificial intelligence to predict criminal activity
- International experience in the use of artificial intelligence in criminal investigation
- A comparative study of other countries using artificial intelligence in criminal investigation
- Future developments and trends in the use of artificial intelligence in criminal investigation
- Using artificial intelligence in crime prevention
- Using artificial intelligence to stop criminal activities
- Investigation methods using artificial intelligence
- Challenges in conducting investigations using artificial intelligence

General requirements:
- The research work must be consistent with the conference's aim, objective, and topic;
- The research work must be based on a certain theory and methodology;
- Presentation paper size shall be A4, text size 2 cm from each side of the page, line spacing "1.15", font type "Arial", font height "12", MS Word, no grammatical or technical errors, 5-8 pages;
- Citations, footnotes, and explanations of used sources must be included without violating copyright or intellectual property rights;
- The presentation should include author's name, a brief introduction of the speaker, keywords, abstract, main body, conclusions, suggestions, and a references;
- Paper and presentation should be written in English;
- Can participate in the conference individually or in a team of 2 people.

Submission deadline:
Papers will be accepted by e-mail: lmaa.m@yahoo.com until 11:59 p.m. on October 27, 2024.
Submitted papers will be screened according to requirements /Plagiarism checker/.

Discussion:

The speaker will present their report in English in 8-10 minutes and discuss it in no more than 7-10 minutes.

Organizing:

The conference will be conducted online using the Zoom platform in English, within the scope of the discussion topics.

Conference result:

Papers discussed at the conference and those that meet the requirements will be made available to the public through an electronic proceeding.

An electronic certificate will be issued to the speakers who attended the conference.

For issues related to the academic conference, contact Police Lieutenant U. Lkhagvamaa by phone number 94071888, at lmaa.m@yahoo.com, and https://www.uia.gov.mn/, at info@uia.gov.mn.

UNIVERSITY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS